

Marketing Plan

Nebraska Career Development Event
Handbook and Rules for 2026-2030

1. Event Purpose

- a. To assist students with developing practical skills in the marketing process through the development and presentation of a marketing plan. Students research and present a marketing plan for an agricultural product, supply or service for a local business, an existing or start-up enterprise. School-based enterprises cannot be used for the CDE. Though only three individuals are on a team, any number of students may assist with the marketing plan. For the event, a three-person team will submit the written plan and present the marketing plan involving the local community that provides a reasonable and logical solution to a marketing problem.
- b. Agriculture Education courses this CDE Aligns with include: Ag Sales & Marketing, Ag Businesses, Ag Communications, Entrepreneurship, Economics & Agribusiness Management, Leadership & Ethics in Agriculture.

2. CDE Objectives

- a. General Objectives:
 - i. Demonstrate an understanding of the marketing plan process.
 - ii. Explore and prepare for possible careers in agrimarketing.
 - iii. Develop partnerships and improve relations between industry, their local FFA chapters, and the general public.
- b. Written Marketing Plan Objectives:
 - i. Collaborate with a local company to identify a potential product that meets an unmet need or want and adds value to the business.
 - ii. Describe industry trends that help identify an immediate opportunity.
 - iii. Identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats associated with the product you are introducing in the market as well as competitors' products.
 - iv. Design a survey to collect data needed to determine if there is demand or the product. For those who want the product, collect customer information including demographics, where they get information on new products, buying preferences, and what influences their decision-making process.
 - v. Develop an effective mission statement to describe what the product/service will provide to a customer.
 - vi. Identify key assumptions that must be in place for the plan to be successful.
 - vii. Create at least three goals (short/long term) that meet the S.M.A.R.T. goal criteria.
 - viii. Analyze and describe who would be most likely to buy the product (target market).
 - ix. Clearly identify the product/service attributes, how it will be priced and why, where customers can buy the product, how it will be promoted, and its unique selling position.
 - x. Evaluate progress on goals and what actions should be taken if goals are not met or are exceeded.
 - xi. Formulate line item expenses and income to create a comprehensive projection for a three-year budget.
- c. Presentation Objectives:
 - i. Integrate and clearly describe concepts from the written plan into the presentation, including the description of the product/client status, market analysis, business proposal, action plan strategies, budget, and evaluation.
 - ii. Determine and produce relative, logical, and detail supportive answers to questions that arise from the written plan and presentation.

- iii. Demonstrate effective communication skills (i.e. eye contact, voice tone, volume and speed, posture, etc.)

3. Eligibility

- a. The Marketing Plan CDE is an open-enrollment event at the state level.
 - b. Agriculture Education students currently in 9th-12th grade are eligible CDE contestants.
 - i. Students who have either won the state contest and/or competed at the national level are not eligible to compete again at the state level.
 - ii. Team size shall be three students, all of whom must be pre-registered as 'participant' or 'alternate'.

4. Required Attire
